

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is a travesty. The nation's airwaves should be used in a helpful, encouraging manner; not in the divisive and hurtful way that Sinclair is operating. We'll be boycotting all of Sinclair's stations in Ohio.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
